

PROFILE

Jason Kruse
General Manager

Heralding from Australia, Jason brings with him more than 18 years of experience in the international hospitality and tourism sector. He holds an Associate Diploma in Business – Hospitality from Southbank Institute, Australia.

Beginning his journey as a management trainee with SPHC Hotels' Daydream Island and Laguna Quays, Australia, Jason swiftly moved onto roles of resort and general manager across various properties in Australia. Jason then moved overseas in the role of general manager at Breezes Resort, Bali, followed by Langkawi, Malaysia where he was general manager of Casa del Mar. Jason's final role prior to joining Six Senses was as general manager of Universal Resorts, Kurumba Maldives where he was highly regarded for his 7 year commitment to the resort.

Among his recreational pursuits, Jason has a passion for road cycling, having enjoyed three months exploring Europe by bike prior to joining Six Senses Fiji. Jason is accompanied in Fiji by his wife, Victoria, who together make a passionate team in creating healthy, nutritious cuisine from scratch. They are always looking for ways to incorporate environmentally sustainable practices in their own home, using the whole parts of foods and encouraging the Fijian locals to think plastic free.

For further information, please contact:

Rose Kavanagh
Marketing Communications Executive
Six Senses Fiji
M +679 808 1971
E rose.kavanagh@sixsenses.com

Follow us:

