Thirty-five US dollars

You make me blossom

Jasmine tea is a very traditional & authentic Maldivian drink as the locals believe starting the day with jasmine gives you to happiness throughout the day.

Maldivian Jasmin / Green Tea, Cucumber / Celery / Lemon / Grey Goose Vodka

Coconut Champagne

Combining two of our holiday favorites; coconut & champagne. Creamy, but pleasantly refreshing, light & dry because of the bubbles.

Coconut Milk / Bubbles / Elderflower / Lemon Basil / 1615 Pisco / Foamy top

Message in a bottle

A natural green beauty. Fresh from our own organic gardens where we grow four types of basil. Combined with some fresh galangal, lemon and vodka.

4 types of basil / Galangal / Lemon / Grey Goose Vodka

Coral Colours

A festival of colours in your glass. Bright blue, green and even red. A cocktail inspired on the beautiful colours you can find in the ocean. Fruity, tropical & soft.

Dragonfruit / Beet / Mango/ Lime/Luxardo Marashino/ Monkey 47 Gin / Foamy top

Kashiekeyo

In this dry, slightly bitter drink we combined two special local fruits; pomelo & screw pine. Screw pine is seen on almost all the local islands and taste as a mix of sugar cane & mango.

Homemade Screw Pine & Pomelo liqueur / Sipsmith Gin /Dry Vermouth / Campari

Stare into the Sun

Maldivians use a lot of pickling in their local cuisine. We used this technique to make our own spiced pineapple shrub. A lush summery, funky cocktail.

Homemade Pineapple Shrub/Agave/Appleton Rum/ Dom Benedictine

Pirates Breakfast

A punch of a drink. Truly refreshing, but some serious & complex flavours of bourbon, Green Chartreuse and a mixture of freshly cut herbs from the garden.

Aloe Vera / Pineapple / Lime / Green Chartreuse / Bulleit Bourbon

Guardian of Places

We don't take our seashells from the beach as we don't want to disturb eco-systems. But we want to bring you a beautiful cocktail inspired on the ocean

Lavender syrup / lemon / mescal / Patron Tequila silver / Sea salt
