The resort’s first guests arrived to Los Cabos and were transferred in style to One&Only Palmilla in a brand-new SUVs, part of the resort’s new luxury fleet of cars. More than 300 team members welcomed the guests along the entry, each full of joy and excitement as they waved and acknowledged the arrival with the symbolic One&Only Palmilla gesture, each with their hand over their heart. All guests were warmly welcomed by the Executive Committee and Operations Team, complete with signature margaritas and a lively Mariachi band.

“We are so thrilled to welcome guests back to One&Only Palmilla to enjoy the re-born resort. The festivities continued into the evening where local dignitaries, including Ruben Reachi, Secretary of Tourism of Baja California Sur, and invited guests watched the official ribbon cutting and then had the opportunity to explore the new culinary experiences at the resort, including the brand-new steakhouse, SEARED. Guests were then able to enjoy the beloved Agua by Larbi Restaurant and discover Chef Larbi’s new menu with canapés and artisanal cocktails. The evening concluded with a spectacular fireworks show, illuminating the bay and a toast with champagne celebrating the rebirth of One&Only Palmilla.
